Anthony Harrison (left) with Trp. Joe Couch, was a 2010 graduate of the Operation Truth Boot Camp, and he listened last year as Cpt. Paul Timmons recruited for the Oklahoma Highway Patrol Cadet Lawman Academy. A year later, Harrison searched the internet for the academy and signed himself up. He sent his application to Timmons who signed on as a sponsor.

“He’s a quite shy young man who really came out of his shell at boot camp,” said Timmons. “I was really surprised and pleased when I heard from him the following year and received his application to Cadet Lawman.”

Harrison said he felt his experience at the boot camp afforded him the opportunity to broaden his horizons by going on to attend the Cadet Lawman Academy the following year
